MILK DEALERS UP IN ARMS.

Will Organize Against Alleged Tyrannical Inspectors.

Brooklyn Merchants Will Endeavor to Have Present Law Repealed.

The milk dealers of Brooklyn have been complaining among themselves of what they allege is tyrannical treatment on the part of the inspectors appointed by Health Commissioner Emery. The arbitrary conduct, these dealers assert, has gone to such lengths that in self-defense they have determined to form an association for mutual protection, and to have repealed, i. e. improved, the present law governing milk inspection.

The law requires that the milk must not contain more than 3 per cent of water, and not less than 15 per cent of solids, in which 15 per cent there must not be less than 3 per cent of fat. Commissioner Emery has instructed the inspectors to make the milk the specific gravity of which does not register 100 by the lactometer. The milk dealers assert that this requirement is unjust, as, because of the long dry season during the summer, and their milk is consequently poorer.

Another cause of complaint lies in the fact that the Health Commissioner will not permit the sale of skim milk in Brooklyn, and in the light of the part of the milk inspectors register a correspondingly low figure.

During the past six months there have been more than three hundred milk dealers arrested, and a fine of $25 was imposed in almost every instance. Right here is another cause for complaint on the part of the dealers. The majority of these cases have been tried before Justice Walsh, who, it is said, will not accept any evidence in refutation of the analysis made by the chemist of the Health Department, but invariably takes such analysis as conclusive evidence.

As the milk dealers are not summoned to court for a month or more after the inspector has taken a sample of their milk, they claim that they have no means of tracing the milk, a sample of which has been taken, as it frequently happens that one dealer procures one thousand dealers in Brooklyn, and it is intended to select as central a place for the meeting as possible.

POUNDED THE CONDUCTOR.

Two Smokers Forebore Object to the Rule and Are Fined.

Henry Meyer, of Twentieth street, and Henry Spickler, of Fulton street, Brooklyn, were each fined $10 by Justice Tigue in the Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning for assaulting Conductor William Sullivan of the Atlantic Avenue Railroad Company. The men pleaded guilty.

Lendrum says they boarded his car at Concord and Adams street Saturday night and persisted in smoking on the platform.

At Ninth avenue and Twentieth street they began to hammer Lendrum and were arrested.

BOY SAYS HE HAD TO STEAL.

Albert Van Ness Confesses to Many Small Burglaries.

Declares that His Stepfather Drove Him from Home.

Robert Gray, a colored boy, was held for the Grand Jury by Justice Walsh, in the Adams Street Court, Brooklyn, today, on the charge of burglary. Albert Van Ness, aged fifteen, was arrested with Gray and pleaded guilty.

Van Ness admits having served three terms in the House of Refuge, and twenty-nine days in Raymond street jail. Since he was released from jail he has been implicated in at least ten burglaries. Detective Kearney thinks Van Ness was concerned in many of the petty robberies in Chinese laundries during the past few weeks.

Van Ness says his mother and stepfather live somewhere on Hoyt street, and that his stepfather turned him out of the house three years ago. Since then he says he has had to shift for himself.

While in the House of Refuge he got acquainted with Gray. He says he was forced to steal to get money to secure a bed in a cheap lodging-house. He admits that he has robbed several Chinamen.

"I worked the 'chinks' on Sunday," he said, "when they are at Sunday school or in Mott street. Then I broke into an Italian's place in Nutria alley and stole two watches."

The boy said that he had robbed many small stores of chewing gum and cigarettes. On Friday he broke into Joseph Koch's store, 226 Pearl street, and got a quantity of tobacco.

He gave Gray some cigarettes. Detective Kearney saw Gray consume a great many cigarettes, and suspected that the goods had been stolen. Gray was arrested last night, and confessed that Van Ness had supplied him with smoking materials. Van Ness says that Gray had nothing to do with any of the robberies. Van Ness says he is a good typewriter.

"Several jobs were offered to," he said, "but when I told them that I learned my trade in the House of Refuge they turned me away. There wasn't nothing for me to do but steal."

ANXIOUS ABOUT NOMINEES.

Some Won't Run Who Are Wanted and Some Will Who Are Not.

Trouble About Evenly Divided Between Shephardites and Regulars.

The leaders of the Shepard Democracy in Kings County held an informal conference at the Montague street headquarters, Brooklyn, this morning to determine who should be the nominee for County Register in the event of Frederick W. Hinrichs refusing to run. No decision was reached.

Mr. Hinrichs now has a $5,000 position. His friends are anxious to have him run, as they claim he stands a good chance of winning.

The leaders received word from Mr. Hinrichs this morning that he would give them a definite answer this afternoon. If he declines to run, the Shephard ticket against Granville W. Harman, the Republican nominee, and Michael J. Cummings, the regular Democrat, will resign as Register of Arraers and at once leave an active canvass.

Mr. Hinrichs is the only one of the Shephard nominees, it is said, who is in doubt on the question of acceptance. Among the regulars, instead of urging nominees to accept, there is talk of getting off the ticket. The strongest opposition in the ranks is directed against Michael J. Cummings for Register and George E. Glendinning for County Clerk.

There is bitter feeling expressed against Cummings because he was nominated him ask him to resign if they don't want him to run. There is a feeling expressed against Glendinning or anybody else to resign from the ticket. Let the people who nominated him ask him to resign if they don't want him to run.

In the Ninth District, Saturday night, the Shephard convention nominated Thomas E. McGeehan. When a committee called on McGeehan this morning to notify him of the nomination, they were informed that he was ill.

The attending physician told the delegation that the nominee was in such a critical condition that he would probably die.

Another candidate will be nominated to-night in his place. The Republicans and Democrats will hold their ward and town conventions to-night to make nominations for Supervisors and Constables.

Secretary A. Kostrum, of the United Democracy of Kings County, sent a notice out to-day for a special meeting to be held in Brooklyn Thursday night. The meeting is called for the purpose of endorsing the third State ticket.

While the organization will endorse the third ticket, the members are not in favor of voting for the Shephard local candidates. On Thursday night, Mr. Kostrum said to-day, the organization will endorse the Republican county and city ticket.
